

TENNIS – ADULT

Divisions

Open Division: For players with advanced competitive skills and significant tournament experience. This would include (but not be limited to) the following types of players:

- Players with inter-collegiate experience in the past seven years
- Players with state high school tournament experience in the past four years
- Players that are currently ranked by a state poll or are the top singles player on a competitive team

A Division: For players with competitive skills, but limited tournament experience. This would include (but not be limited to) the following types of players:

- Players that are mainly recreational players with solid tennis skills
- Players with some high school tennis experience
- Players that may compete in a local league but may lack tournament experience

B Division: For recreational players of modest skill.